

MADISON PARTNERS

BIOGRAPHY

Chris Keller

Senior Executive Director

Over the last ten years, Chris Keller has built a reputation as one of the leading tenant representatives in Los Angeles. Specifically, he specializes in tenant representation. Chris has a thorough knowledge of landlords, tenants, properties and nuances throughout the city.

Chris seamlessly guides clients through the entire lease/sale transaction process including site selection, space planning, negotiations, financial analyses, lease/sale negotiations, build-out, move-in and final punch list items. Additionally, a lease renewal, relocation, lease re-negotiation, expansion and/or subleasing are his areas of expertise.

Chris is a fifth generation Californian and native of Los Angeles. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature with a minor in History from Loyola Marymount University.

References are available upon request.