

Christy McRoskey

Director

Christy McRoskey joined Madison Partners in February 2009. With significant real estate experience in Northern California, Ms. McRoskey specializes in project leasing, tenant representation, as well as investment sales.

Prior to joining Madison Partners, Ms. McRoskey was a Senior Leasing Associate with The CAC Group, San Francisco's leading independent commercial real estate firm. Ms. McRoskey started as an analyst and market research associate at CAC in 2001 and in 2005 became a broker and partnered with one of CAC's founding principals. Over her career, Christy has been involved in over 2.5 million square feet of lease transactions and $900 million in property sales. Ms. McRoskey has represented more than 4.0 million square feet in project leasing and has represented significant Landlord's such as Beacon Capital Partners, Broadway Partners, Equity Office/Blackstone, AEW and Lucas Film. Noteworthy tenant clients include Morrison Foerster, Keker & Van Nest, Orrick, The RREEF Funds, The Carlyle Group and MD Beauty-Bare Escentuals.

A recipient of the CoStar Power Broker Award, Ms. McRoskey is a graduate of Santa Clara University and holds a Bachelor of Sciences Degree in Economics.