

Travis Landrum

Director

Travis Landrum, a Director at Madison Partners West Los Angeles office in Century City, is a commercial real estate broker who specializes in representing Tenants, Landlords, and Investors. Mr. Landrum focuses on West Los Angeles Tenant Representation, Landlord Representation, Investment Sales, lease analysis, strategic Real Estate planning as well as occupancy and cost reduction strategies.

Prior to joining Madison Partners, Mr. Landrum worked for CB Richard Ellis in the Los Angeles Private Client group. He began his career as a real estate financial analyst focusing on numerous Los Angeles submarkets.

Mr. Landrum received his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration, with an emphasis in Finance, from the University of Colorado in Boulder. He maintains professional affiliations with the National Outdoor Leadership School and the University of Colorado Alumni Association.