PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Chris Keller has been representing tenants in Los Angeles (and throughout the United States) for over fourteen years. Chris joined Madison Partners after three years at a national firm in order to focus on commercial real estate in Los Angeles. He is one of the leading tenant representation brokers in Los Angeles and has been recognized as Broker of the Year in Los Angeles (twice). His performance and knowledge of the local market are testimonials to his continued success. He has a proven ability of listening to and helping clients achieve real estate transactions that are economically and functionally beneficial to their needs. Chris seamlessly guides his clients through the entire lease/sale transaction process from evaluating the requirement and strategic planning to the culmination of each assignment. Relocation, renewal, lease/sale negotiations, subleasing and expansion are among his areas of expertise.
